1 Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Arizona:

2 Section 1. Section 33-1101, Arizona Revised Statutes, is amended to 3 read:

4 33-1101. Homestead exemptions: persons entitled to hold
5 homesteads

6 A. Any person WHO IS the age of eighteen or over OR WHO IS OTHERWISE
7 EMANCIPATED, married or single, who resides within the state may hold as a 8 homestead exempt from attachment, execution and forced sale, not exceeding 9 one hundred fifty thousand dollars in value, any one of the following:

10 1. The person's interest in real property in one compact body upon 11 which exists a dwelling house in which the person resides.

12 2. The person's interest in one condominium or cooperative in which 13 the person resides.

14 3. A mobile home in which the person resides.

15 4. A mobile home in which the person resides plus the land upon which 16 that mobile home is located.

17 B. Only one homestead exemption may be held by a married couple or a 18 single person under this section. The value as specified in this section 19 refers to the equity of a single person or married couple. If a married 20 couple lived together in a dwelling house, a condominium or cooperative, a 21 mobile home or a mobile home plus land on which the mobile home is located 22 and are then divorced, the total exemption allowed for that residence to 23 either or both persons shall not exceed one hundred fifty thousand dollars in 24 value.

25 C. The homestead exemption, not exceeding the value provided for in 26 subsection A, automatically attaches to the person's interest in identifiable 27 cash proceeds from the voluntary or involuntary sale of the property. The 28 homestead exemption in identifiable cash proceeds continues for eighteen 29 months after the date of the sale of the property or until the person 30 establishes a new homestead with the proceeds, whichever period is 31 shorter. Only one homestead exemption at a time may be held by a person 32 under this section.
